67 WAYS TO FIND MOTIVATED SELLERS

Disclaimer
This publication is intended to deliver accurate and authoritative information regarding the subject matter covered. This information contained here is up-to-date as of the date of this publication.

By accepting this material, you recognize that the publisher is not engaged in offering or providing legal, accounting or other professional services. The advice and strategies contained herein may not be suitable for your situation. You should feel free to and are advised to consult legal, accounting or other professional advisors. Neither the publisher nor author shall be liable for any loss of profit or any other commercial damages, including but not limited to special, incidental, consequential or other damages.

This publication is not and should not be considered an offer to sell securities, the sale of which are regulated by state and federal laws and regulations.

PLEASE NOTE: THIS GUIDE IS INTENDED FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY!

The reproduction, translation or copying of this work or any part of this work without the permission of the copyright owner is unlawful. For more information on our services and on the conditions of use of informational content please see https://flippingmastery.com

Contract Disclaimer
Any sample contracts contained in this guide are for example only. They should not merely be duplicated without considering specifics and details of your particular situation. They are not intended to cover each and every real estate transaction or situation.

Real estate contracts are important documents, so you should consult an attorney in your state before making any contractual commitment or signing any agreement. State laws vary and certain provisions in these sample contracts may not be enforceable. You may have a specific situation not addressed by these samples, and the attorney can address that particular issue for you.

By downloading and using these documents, you agree to indemnify and hold harmless Jerry Norton, Flipping Mastery, JLN Group LLC and its directors, officers, employees, shareholders, financial advisors, attorneys and accountants against any claim, liability, loss, damage or expense (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and other costs of investigating and litigating claims) caused, directly or indirectly, by your use of these documents.

Earnings Disclaimer
Use of testimonials and personal examples herein are for exemplary purposes only. Specific discussions of earnings are not an indication that the reader will experience the same results. Background, education, experience all play into one's ability to generate profits. As such results will vary.

LEGAL NOTICE

Copyright © 2019 by Flipping Mastery

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, distributed, or transmitted in any form or by any means, including photocopying, recording, or other electronic or mechanical methods, without the prior written permission of the publisher, except in the case of brief quotations embodied in critical reviews and certain other noncommercial uses permitted by copyright law. For permission requests, write to the address below.

Flipping Mastery, LLC

2036 N Gilbert Rd

Suite 2-188

Mesa, AZ 85203

support@flippingmastery.com

888-958-3028

DISCLOSURE

These documents and information contained herein are designed to provide accurate and authoritative information with regard to the subject matter being covered.

It is given with the understanding that the authors and distributors are not engaged in providing legal, accounting, real estate or other professional advice.

If legal advice or other expert or professional assistance is required, the services of a competent professional person licensed in your area should be sought.

67 Ways to Find Motivated Sellers

Hi it's Jerry Norton, the nation's leading expert on flipping houses and lead generation is the life blood for any real estate investor and especially for real estate flippers. You have to successfully find motivated sellers on a daily basis. If you're not doing as many deals as you'd like, then you're not finding enough motivated sellers so in this special report, I'm going to share with you 67 different ways to find motivated sellers.

First of all, a motivated seller is someone who is willing to trade equity for peace of mind. In other words, they will sell you their unwanted property at a discount to alleviate the stress that property is causing them and I have a list of 67 different ways to find motivated seller but before I go through this comprehensive list, keep in mind there are 2 different methods of marketing...You have "push" techniques and "pull" techniques.

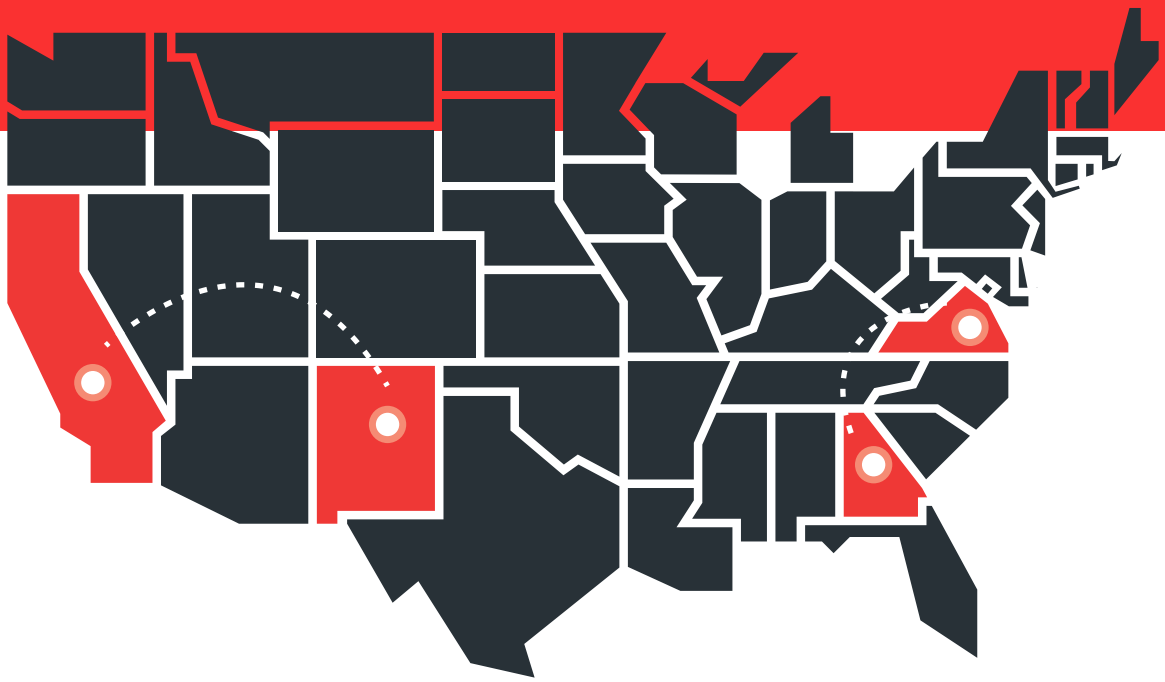
Push Marketing:
Push is using a proactive approach such as calling, texting, emailing, ring less voicemail (RVM), door knocking, etc. It's where you're reaching out to the prospect.

Pull Marketing:
The Pull is when you're putting your information in front of prospects with the hope that they reach out to you. For example, direct mail, bandit signs, or any kind of ads where you're trying to get the prospect to call you or reply to an ad.

With all of the motivated seller lead types I'm going to share, think about employing both push and pull techniques. At the end of the day, your goal is to get in front of a motivated seller lead and make an offer to buy their distressed property.

1. Eviction notices from the court.

This is the perfect time to ask a tired landlord if he wants to sell. You will need to contact your local court that handles tenant evictions to acquire a list.



2. Out-of-state landlords.

Buy and hold investors who live in one state and own a rental in another state. A lot of people get re-located for work and instead of selling their primary residence, they keep it as a rental and then quickly realize how difficult it is to manage a rental long distance and are motivated to sell.

3. Landlords who own more than one property with back taxes.

Back taxes on more than 1 property is an indication of a financial problem and they might be motivated to sell a property quickly to pay the back taxes.

4. Property owners whose assessment went way up this year.

This means their property taxes are going to increase causing many to no longer afford their home. Contact the county assessor's office to find out where the largest increases have happened.

5. Properties that were owned by people who went out of business.

Often times failed business owners are also in jeopardy of losing their home.

6. Tax delinquent homeowners.

These are people behind on their property taxes. Contact the county assessor's office to get a list. Start will delinquents more than 1 year behind.

7. Unemployment offices.

They could be having trouble with their homes and may need a solution. You can hand out or place We Buy Houses flyers/ business cards.

8. Post flyers on bulletin boards at large stores.

Especially Home Depot.

9. Vacant land owners.

Best in specific areas where development is ideal and lots can be flipped for a profit.

10. Craigslist.

I have several videos about how to find and flip houses on craigslist and created a playlist.

Here is the link to that playlist:
https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLNDQ7qfA7mThZLyRlbZrjXnRl2jltOSQZ

11. Ebay.

People post homes for sale there.

12. Letitgo.

This is like ebay or craigslist where people post things they want to sell including houses. Download the app.

13. Low income zip codes.

These are areas where buy and hold investors like to invest. Target properties purchased between 3k-20k within last five years. These might be investors that still haven't done anything with the property. Watch this video about how to make a fortune flipping low income houses.
https://youtu.be/QMJEpsCAvJw

14. People getting divorced.

In some cases, they are motivated to sell their home.

15. Divorce Attorneys.

They can refer clients.

16. For sale by owner (FSBO).

Be sure to check out this video where I show step by step how to find FSBO on Zillow:
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=l9AOkPsOJE8

17. Expired MLS Listings.

This are homes that did not sell with an agent and now the owner may desperately need to sell.

18. Underpriced homes for sale on the MLS.

I actually developed a free software that will give you a list of all of the underpriced homes in any zip code in the US. I'll give that to you for free.

https://flippingmastery.com/datacruncher/yt/

19. Paid ads on Facebook.

Post ads in your local area – We Buy Houses

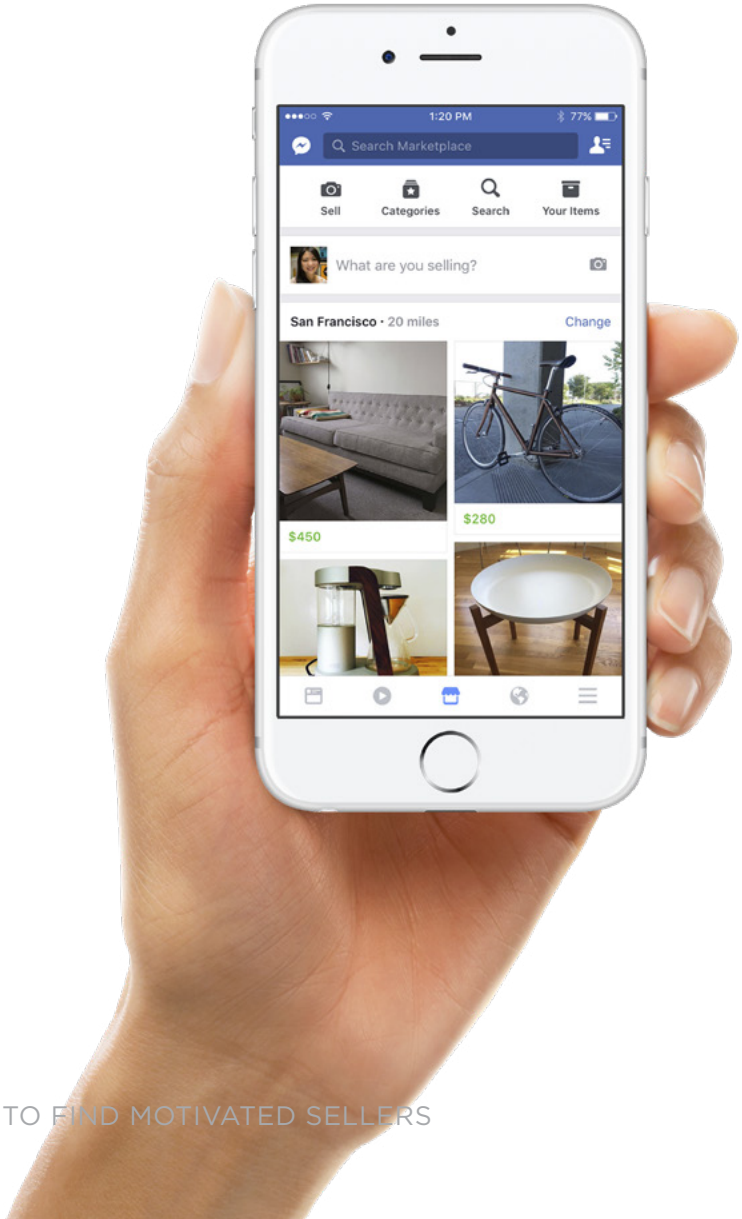
20. Facebook Marketplace.

This is another place where people post things for sale including houses.



21. Estate Executors/Administrators.

They can refer clients looks to sell an inherited home.

22. Estate/Probate Attorneys.

They can refer clients looks to sell an inherited home.

23. People who inherited homes.

Often called probate.

24. Bandit signs.

Hanging We Buy Jouses signs on telephone poles. Watch this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2Qg060Kgm4w

25. Big Baller marketing: (TV, billboards, radio ads).

These can be expensive but sometimes they will sell lost inventory spots for really cheap.

26. Empty nesters.

These are owners with equity who have lived in their homes for more than 30 years. They are likely ready to downsize. Watch this video to learn more about how I believe this is the next biggest wave of motivated sellers.
https://youtu.be/usIfNTcnvtU

27. Building code violators.

People will citations from the city or state regarding issues with their homes.

28. Health code violators.

An indication that the home is not being properly taken care of.

29. Pre Pre-foreclosure.

People who are late on payments but just barely and the bank hasn't started the foreclosure process yet.

30. Pre-foreclosure.

These are people where the bank has started the foreclosure process. Watch this video to learn more about pre-foreclosures. https://youtu.be/CN_XYovSBZY

31. People making double payments.

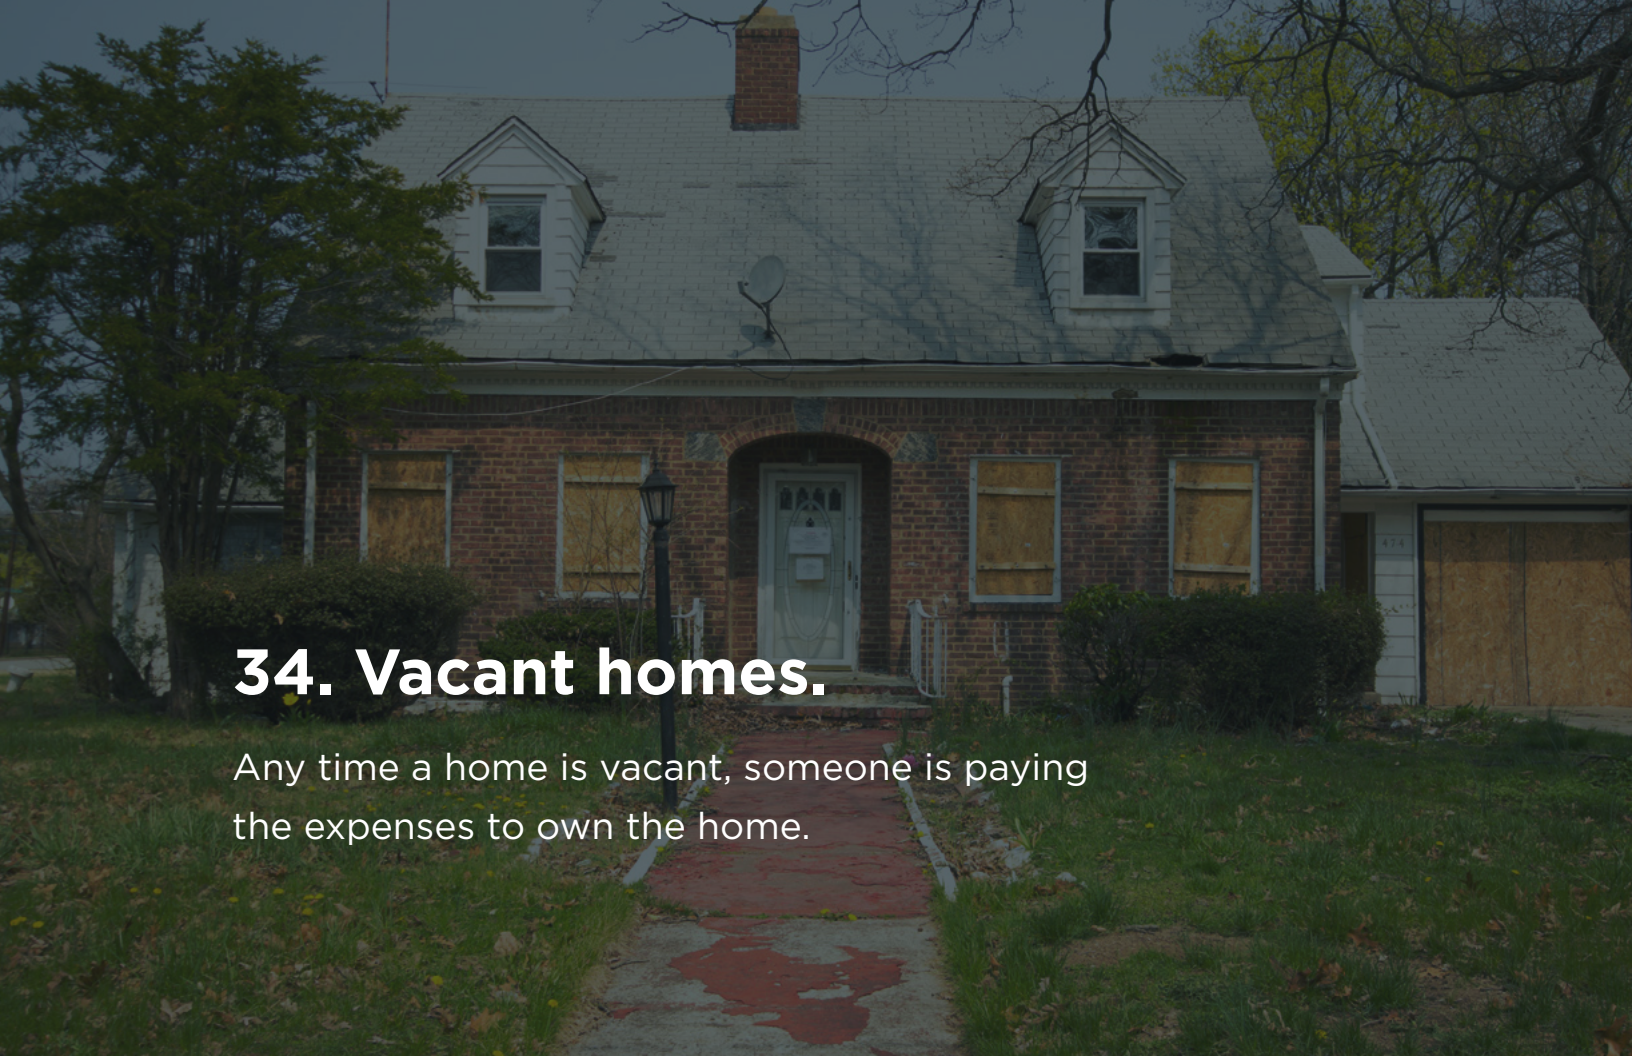
In other words they owe 2 homes. This can cause a financial burden.

32. People who have been transferred for work.

Often are motivated to sell their home.

33. People with medical or health problems.

Often need to downsize or sell to pay for medical expenses.



34. Vacant homes.

Any time a home is vacant, someone is paying the expenses to own the home.

35. People in Bankruptcy or having financial burdens.

Often need to sell their home to meet the other financial obligations.

36. Bankruptcy court listings

Lists of bankruptcy listings.

37. Credit Repair Agencies & Credit Counselors.

They can refer people who are struggling financially.

38. HUD/VA Foreclosures.

This is similar to a bank REO except the government owns the property and is motivated to sell it.

39. People arrested for violent crimes.

They may be going to prison for a long time and will need to sell their home

40. Real estate agents.

Agents can bring good deals. Follow my double dip strategy. https://youtu.be/tMYd5sUjJ5kburden.

41. Employees who have been laid off.

The may getting behind on their payments.

42. Networking at local and online meet up groups.

Every area has investor meet up groups. Network to meet other investors. There are several investor groups on Facebook.

43. Owners of section 8 approved properties.

There might be a tired or burned out landlord.

44. Post Newspaper classified ads: We Buy Houses

Surprisingly people still read the newspaper and it can be a great source of leads.

45. Post ads in Penny Saver type papers.

Yes, people still read them.

46. Properties with liens: Mechanics Liens, HOA Liens, Tax Liens

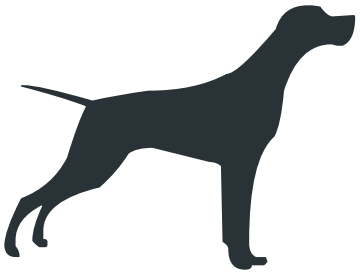
Any type of lien is an indication of a financial hardship.

47. Sales people at new home subdivisions.

Their clients will want to sell their OLD houses. Place signs near new home subdivisions that say “Sell Your House Fast” with your phone number... they may will want to sell their old house.

48. Mortgage brokers.

They may know of people wanting to sell their old house/last house.



49. Bird dogs.

These are people who will scout leads for you for a referral fee. For example, recruit mail carriers to notify you of vacant and distressed properties. Watch my bird dog playlist to learn more. https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLNDQ7qfA7mTiZ9cHRTqHw_9gI2b1fHmTd

50. Accountants and CPA Firms.

They have clients with financial problems.

51. Real estate attorneys.

They have clients with financial problems.

52. Advertise using Apparel with Logos.

Hats, T-Shirts, Golf Shirts.

53. People getting their car or boat repossessed.

If the car is going the house isn't far behind.

54. Carpet cleaners.

Many of their customers are preparing a house for sale.

55. Charitable groups/churches.

They frequently receive gifts of real estate, but they'd rather have the cash.

56. City & County Inspectors:

They know about code violations and red tags.

57. Large Employers (HR departments)

Let them know you buy properties because if they need to transfer an employee, they don't get stuck carrying the house.

58. Executive properties for short-term transferees.

The short-term renters may have a property they need to sell.

59. Nursing & Retirement Homes.

Frequently residents need to sell a house.

60. Door Hangers on target properties.

You can also use pre-printed post-it notes to leave messages at target properties. Be sure to advertise on both sides.

61. Garage Sales.

Are they moving?

62. Send mailers to Hair Salons/Barbers.

A social hub! Lots of talking going on during haircuts!

63. Property Insurance Brokers.

Policy changes from owner occupant to landlord or vacant house coverage.

64. Water, Gas, and electric company shut off lists.

If they're unable to pay their utility bills, they are in financial distress.

65. High equity owners.

Owners who have at least 50% equity.

66. Free and clear.

Owners who own their properties free and clear of any loans.

67. Flipster

The #1 house flipping deal management system on the market. Not only does Flipster organize, streamline, and automate all the steps to flipping houses but it also finds deals for you and has some of the best motivated seller leads in the country. There are 3 different subscription levels and every month you get hundreds of free leads added to your account. If you're looking to do your first deal or you're doing deals every month, Flipster can take you to the next level. Check it out here: GetFlipster.com