How to Have, Be and Do and Give Everything You Want in Life…

A Note from Jerry…

I want to congratulate you for taking action and downloading this goals workbook. It requires a serious commitment to achieve the goals and dreams you desire in your life.

As I have worked with thousands of real estate investors from all over the world I have come to realize that the most important characteristics of successful people in any area of life is that they know who they are, what they believe in, and what they stand for. Most people are confused about their goals, values, and ideas, and as a result, go back and forth and accomplish very little. Men and women who become the top achievers, on the other hand, with the same or even fewer abilities and opportunities go on to great accomplishments in whatever they attempt.

This is certainly the case for me. I was a construction worker (dug holes with a shovel). I was not handed a silver spoon. I didn't have special advantages and certainly don't possess superior talents. I am an ordinary person with a very clear vision of what I want to have, be do and give in life and as such have become a self-made millionaire and live the life of my dreams. The good news is you can too and I will show you how.

In order to live the life of your dreams it is absolutely essential that you write down your goals, make plans to achieve them and work on your plans every single day.

You have more potential then you could ever use in your entire lifetime but in order to tap into it, you must take responsibility for it. Once you accept total responsibility for your life, there are no limits on what you can accomplish.

Here are some valuable insights on effective goal setting from Brain Tracy's book, Goals! How to get everything you want – Faster Than You Ever Thought Possible:

Seven Keys to Goal Setting:

1. Goals must be clear, specific, detailed and written down
2. Goals must be Measurable and objective
3. Goals must be time bounded
4. Goals must be challenging
5. Goals must be congruent with your values and in harmony with each other
6. Goals must be balanced
7. Goals must have a major definite purpose for your life

12 Steps to Set and Achieve Any Goal:

1. Have a desire: What do you really want?
2. Believe that your goal is achievable
3. Write your goal down
4. Determine your starting point
5. Determine why you want it
6. Set a deadline
7. Identify the obstacles in your way
8. Determine the additional knowledge and skills you need
9. Determine the people whose help you ill need.
10. Make a plan: Put it all together.
11. Visualize your goal continually.
12. Never give up

Without a very clear understanding of what you want and why, nothing you do will matter much.

So let's get started.

Remember, you are engineered for greatness and designed for success!

To Your Success,

Jerry Norton

Why Paragraphs - 1 Year Goals

List why you want each of your 1 Year Goals. Be specific in your descriptions: state how high, how far, how fast, what color, what kind, feelings involved, what it will be like to have it, what you would do with it, etc. You need to have good reasons why so that when achieving them becomes hard, you know why you're doing it.

Three Words

When you die, what three words would you want others to use to describe you?
(print large and bold)

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____

Based upon these three words, you now have given yourself a daily decision-making process that will help steer you in the direction of that person you want to become. Your life will no longer be based upon chance. You now know which direction you are headed.

Mastermind Guidelines

- Each meeting will be held on a specific time and day each week.
- All members take turns being host and in the “hot seat”.
- Each member is expected to be present and on time for the meeting. If you cannot attend please e-mail the host ahead of time.
- Everyone will have an opportunity to speak within the framework of the group. It works best if each member participates equally.
- Everyone is here to support each other. Please keep in mind there will be constructive criticism, but there should be no putting down, or criticism of other group members. It should be an open and positive experience for all.
- The mastermind is not just for advice, but also a positive place where you can manifest your goals with a group. Every person is expected to make it their intention to support the individual goals and help manifest them.

Outline

12:00 – Welcome
The host takes the rest of the group through the agenda and makes sure the mastermind sticks to the time schedule.
12:05 - Share a “Win”
Each member shares a personal win from the previous week. How big or small doesn't matter.
12:20 - Hot Seat
One member takes place in the hot seat. This is the perfect time to get the attention and input from all the other minds in the group on what you're doing. Walk everyone through:

1. What you are working on
2. What’s working for you
3. With what do you need help

12:40 - Last Questions
Who can help (hot seat member) with their problem?
12:50 – Resource
The hot seat member shares a useful resource he or she has been using lately that could benefit the other members of the group.
12:55 – Goals
Everyone briefly states their goals for the upcoming week.
1:00 – End

Private Facebook Group

In between mastermind meetings the group communicates through a private Facebook group. This is an ongoing discussion in which we do our best to give supportive accountability and help each other in every way we can.
